"TilGul Ghya Goad Goad Bola"

Variety in names as Maghi, Lohri, MaghBihu, and Thai pongal the festivities associated with Makar Sankranti is one of the few ancient Indian festivals. It has been observed according to solar cycles, while most festivals are set by the lunar cycle of the lunisolar, Hindu Calendar. A shared cultural practices found amongst Hindus of various parts of India is making sticky, bound sweets particularly from sesame (til) and a sugar base such as jaggery (gud). This type of sweet is a symbolism for being together in peace and joyfulness, despite the uniqueness and differences between individuals. Keeping this precious concept in mind Guru Nanak Institute of Technology celebrated, "TilGulGhya Goad Goad Bola" under Women's Development Cell.

Sardar Navneet singhji Tuli, CMD, Guru Nanak Institutions always encourages celebrating such kind of activities and gives support accordingly. Dr. SudhirShelke, Principal GNIT who believes in gender equality supported for the success of the program. He has shared the Dias by giving the message of women empowerment, unity in variety of religions and service towards humanity. The event started with welcome speech by Dr. Varsha Gaikwad, Chairperson Women's Development Cell, GNIT. Explaining the importance of Makar Sankranti, the program is followed by competition which included two categories of events-Verbal and Non-verbal. Both the events were conducted simultaneously at two different venues from 2:30pm onwards. Under verbal category, Ukhana Competition won by Mrs. Ashwini Kothe and Dr. Archana Deshpande won the prize for Rangoli in Non-verbal category. Principal GNIT appreciated Dr. Archana Deshpande and Prof. Geetanjali Kale for organizing such an event. Prof. Tushar Borkar and Kavita Nikose kindly supported for refreshment. To overcome the gap between teaching and non teaching women in GNIT a strong bridge has been built through this event by Management and Organizers.
